Located in the heart of Perth, close to the river, shops, sporting facilities and only 12 minutes from the Launceston CBD is this stunning property. If you have been looking for that unit or tidy home but don't want to be in a complex with other dwellings and love the privacy of your own block of land then this is a must see. There are two bedrooms, lounge room and open plan kitchen/dining area with glass sliding doors leading to an undercover entertaining area and gorgeous gardens. The single remote access garage has internal access to the home for peace of mind. The block is level and secure with well loved established gardens including a shed for storage and several raised Veggie gardens.
