This expansive residence offers a multitude of impressive features and is guaranteed to meet all your requirements when relocating to the thriving town of Bannockburn. Situated in a quiet pocket of Bannockburn on approximately 4,900sqm, this well-appointed family home boasts three distinct living areas, allowing for flexible use of the floor plan. As you enter, to the right, there is a generously sized study/6th bedroom, along with four bedrooms featuring built-in robes, a laundry, central bathroom, and a separate toilet. This wing of the home is perfect for the kids/guest as it can also be closed off, offering great flexibility in the floorplan. To the left of the home, you'll discover the luxurious master suite, also known as the parents' retreat. It encompasses a spacious ensuite with a twin vanity, a spa bath, a roomy shower, a large walk-in robe, and convenient access to either the theatre room with a projector screen or the front rumpus room. The heart of this home lies in its open-plan kitchen, living, and dining area, which seamlessly connects to the expansive and high-quality entertaining space. This light-filled chef's kitchen offers ample bench space, an electric induction cooktop, an oven, a dishwasher, and abundant storage. Step outside, where you can choose to relax under the alfresco area or in the retreat-style patio and indulge in the serene ambience this delightful outdoor area provides. Whether you're hosting gatherings with family and friends or enjoying quiet moments, this space is perfect year-round. Additional notable features include a theatre room, refrigerated cooling and ducted heating, a double garage with internal access, and an impressive 8.0m x 19.8m shed with a roller door and carport. Conveniently positioned just minutes away from the heart of Bannockburn and a 20-minute drive to Geelong CBD, this home is ready for its next owner to move in and relish the country lifestyle it offers.
