A refined elegance by renowned developers CADRE presents an impeccable design by award winning architects Freadman White, offering three levels of inner-city luxury as one of only four town residences in the heart of vibrant Richmond. Introduced by oak floors, ample natural light and cleverly appointed storage throughout, seamless indoor/outdoor entertaining on the upper level features a Portsea limestone island kitchen with breakfast bar comprising Miele appliances opening out to an alfresco rooftop terrace with sweeping city views and barbeque. Well-appointed accommodation presents three generous bedrooms across two levels, first floor environs featuring one with walk in robe and ensuite, the second with private balcony and the third on ground floor within built study nook and ensuite. Includes floor heating in two bathrooms, steam shower, Smart house with speakers throughout, double glazing, laundry, solar PV, 6 star energy rating and internal access to garage parking. Located steps from Swan Street cafes restaurants and trams, Burnley Station, Burnley Park and the MCG.
