Step into this lovely open plan home and discover a private paradise. The lower level comprises three light-filled living areas, all with direct access to paved garden courtyards and safe fenced play areas for young children. The split-level residence is deceptively large and has potential for the layout to be reconfigured to create additional bedrooms, subject to Council approval. The home is in a quiet yet highly accessible residential pocket and is close to leading schools, parklands and major shopping centres. Our genuine seller has relocated interstate, and the home is now ready to warmly welcome a new family to enjoy its lovely ambience.
