Its Addressed: Within a mere two-minute stroll from Parkmore Shopping Centre and Chandler Park Primary School, this traditional triple-fronted brick-veneer single-storey home is perfectly situated for growing families. Nestled on a sizeable 521sqm North-facing corner block in a quiet location, the new owner property is charming and ideally positioned. Boasting a solid brick and steel border fence along the front and side boundaries, security and privacy are catered. Well-presented, easy-maintenance landscaping surrounds the home, with lush green turf creating a secure front yard for children to play. An oversized double lock-up garage, complete with rear roller door access to the backyard, provides ample space for vehicles, complemented by a concrete pad offering convenient parking for a caravan or boat. The clever design of the outdoor spaces creates two separate areas, offering versatility for varied uses. A spacious L-shaped living and dining area and separate meals are finished with premium carpet and ceramic floor tiles. Security shutters, external storage shed, evaporative cooling and ducted heating are practical features. The enclosed alfresco with an access ramp to the yard is a great space for entertaining, while sheer and blackout curtains complement the modern LED down lights and ornate ceiling cornices. The solid timber kitchen boasts shaker-style cabinetry and 40mm rounded-edge speckled laminate countertops. A large 900mm freestanding electric oven and gas burner cooktop, stainless steel dishwasher, and a decorative tiled splashback enhance functionality and aesthetics. The accommodation comprises four well-sized bedrooms, each offering ample built-in storage space. The main bedroom features a walk-in robe and a private ensuite, while both bathrooms maintain their original finish with full-height wall tiles, spindle tap ware and opaque shower screens. The main bathroom adds a tiled hob bathtub for the kids. In close proximity to schools, shops and the Frederick Wachter Reserve, this home epitomises comfort, convenience and a family-friendly lifestyle. Contact us for a priority inspection today.
