One of the most special features is the fabulous northerly aspect which has sun streaming into the living area. A new kitchen has been recently installed and now offers updated appliances, heaps of storage in both drawers and cupboards and you'll love the generous preparation areas. A new bathroom has also been built, making a modern, minimalist space with separate shower and bath highlighted with black tapware and subway tiles. The laundry also has been renewed in a style complementing the bathroom. 3 bedrooms offer comfortable accommodation for singles, couples or a family. Young families particularly will love that this home is within an easy walk of Rosetta Primary School which is located approximately 650m away. Retirees will love the ease of living offered all on one level and the fact that you're less than 2kms from Glenorchy shops and services. Investors will surely also see the benefit of this solid, updated home and its terrific location. Outdoors, the garden is generous and enjoys lots of sun. There are some good storage sheds here too.
