From the moment you set foot upon the meticulously crafted grounds of this newly built luxury residence, you'll find yourself enveloped in an ambiance reminiscent of the grandeur of age-old France – seamlessly infused with modern opulence. The façade, a mesmerizing French provisional artwork setting the tone for what lies within. The grandeur is palpable as the double doors lead you into a realm of supreme luxury. Impeccably placed European Oak floorboards, guide your journey through the house. Immediately upon entry, a spacious lounge room demands your admiration, boasting a gas-log marble fireplace that promises countless warm and memorable evenings. To your left, the large double garage completes with a driveway spacious enough to park 2 more cars. As you venture deeper, an elegant study room, the guest bedroom with an ensuite and walk-in wardrobe. Adjacent to this lies a large laundry and powder room, exuding the same aesthetic sophistication. At the back of the house, a huge family/dining area, seamlessly extending to a culinary haven – the kitchen. Outfitted with Miele stainless steel appliances and framed by resplendent marble benchtops, it is complemented perfectly by a discreet butler's kitchen fitted with Fofite cooktop and rangehood. Extend your dining experience as the area leads you through sliding doors to an undercover alfresco, boasting extended decking - perfect for sunlit brunches and moonlit dinners. Ascend the hardwood stairs, an architectural masterpiece bathed in the soft glow of an exquisite chandelier. The upper sanctuary introduces a lounge area perfect for intimate gatherings. Step out to a balcony that offers panoramic views of Mount Waverley, an ever-present backdrop to this regal abode. Housing three lavish bedrooms, each came with walk-in wardrobes and ensuites, comfort knows no bounds. The pièce de résistance – the master bedroom, is a realm unto itself. With not one, but two walk-in wardrobes, an opulent ensuite, and a dedicated private study, it is a testament to unbridled luxury. Situated a leisurely walk away from Mount Waverley Secondary College, the residence offers an unparalleled blend of serenity and convenience. A brief drive can lead you to the Mount Waverley Village, the iconic Chadstone shopping centre, and Mount Waverley and Glen Waverley train stations. In this residence, luxury isn't just a word, but an experience that unfolds with each step. Welcome to a life of French provisional grandeur.
