This huge property is truly a hidden gem in Latrobe! Set on just over an acre with two large sheds this five-bedroom, three-bathroom and two-loungeroom home is something rather special! The large internal lot is the perfect balance of privacy, space and practicality! The grounds provide ample room for kids and pets to run around without the fear of traffic, the two large sheds give the ability to store up to seven vehicles, trailers, boats, etc. and the huge home is a fantastic opportunity for the larger family or even larger group investment. The main dwelling has been renovated throughout the years and boasts a gorgeous modern kitchen in a beautiful open plan living and dining area that flows to the rear patio area for those warmer summer days. The five separate bedrooms and dedicated office is the perfect size for a larger family to have a bedroom each or to lease half of the home to help with the mortgage. Two large separate loungerooms are another brilliant feature of this home and gives the ability for a cinema room, parents retreat or playroom away from the main entertaining area. The home has been very well designed for light and warmth with large windows in every room and a large ducted reverse-cycle air conditioner that has vents in every room. The home is located within walking distance to all that Latrobe has to offer, including the hospital, multiple primary and secondary schools, daycare centres, sporting grounds and shopping districts whilst only being a short drive into Devonport. This house is a rarity with its larger grand design, beautiful gardens and those sheds! For more information or to book a private inspection please contact the listing agent Kurt Knowles today!
