Contemporary East to West Aspect

An unassuming but very neat clad facade, surround by quality homes in the southern location on Pineleigh.

Stepping inside to square cut contemporary plaster finishes with light walls, mahogany colored floating flooring and a near new quality wool carpet under foot in bedrooms and top section of hallway.

A genuine warmth and inviting feel compliments of its light aspect, dual reverse cycle air conditioners in living areas, economical heating in the cooler months.

Everyone loves a great kitchen, kitchen lovers and cooks alike shall appreciate the wood grain look large breakfast bench space, quality appliances, drawer and pantry storage, the double Blanco silgranit sink, a beautiful feature.

Adjacent the kitchen, the dining and lounge area flow between, a large sliding door allows morning sun to enter the lounge space and late in the day back into the dining space, sliding door to lowset decking.

Stone top wall hung vanity and matching cupboard, mirror cupboards, tiled shower with stylish recess, oval bath and black tap-ware, thought and planning has created a modern functional bathroom.

A large 2nd living space or rumpus room, faces west for late afternoon sunshine and enjoys direct access to the decking and a driveway access door.

3 good sized bedrooms with built-in robes.

High privacy fencing, garden shed and everyones dream, a decent workshop/garage.

Good off street parking, sea glimpses, low maintenance from top to toe and modern in its presentation.

The work has been done and the reward is yours, move in and live!

Call Jenna and Andrew to experience this homes fine offerings.
