

28 Redman Road, Dee Why, NSW 2099

Sold House

Saturday, 17 February 2024

28 Redman Road, Dee Why, NSW 2099

Bedrooms: 5

Bathrooms: 2

Parkings: 3

Area: 1347 m2

Type: House

James Leith
0290737888

Lachlan Yeates
0290737888

$3,000,000

Perched high capturing mesmerising north east views over the ocean and Long Reef Headland, this flexible home is set on a sprawling 1,347sqm landscaped block in a blissfully quiet cul-de-sac. The light filled interiors reveal spacious proportions, with a flexible layout perfectly configured for the large or growing family with a lower-level teen or parents retreat and a separate self-contained studio. It is ideal to move straight in while contemplating the potential to create your own coastal masterpiece with scope extend, as well as plentiful space for a pool or explore possibility to subdivide (STCA). It is superbly located a short walk into Dee Why's cosmopolitan town center, express buses bound for the CBD and 15 minutes to the beach. - Captures the ocean breeze with the wide-open vista as a superb backdrop - Peaceful family friendly neighbourhood, sunny north east aspect - A commanding setting with ocean and Long Reef Headland views - Bright free-flowing living space with a defined lounge and dining - Modern stone finished kitchen with gas appliances and meals bar - Flexible layout, ideal for multi-gen families or home plus income option - Three bedrooms with built-ins, lower-level teenage or parents retreat - Opportunity for self-contained studio ideal for teens, in-laws or business - Well-presented bathrooms, main with spa, air conditioning, ample storage- Park like level lawns which are perfect for playing, relaxing or entertaining - A paradise for kids and visiting birdlife, ample space for a pool (STCA) - Three covered car spaces, plenty of parking for a boat/trailer - Huge block of land with solid construction