Welcome to 28 Reynolds Road, where the current owners have created a warm and inviting home just looking for the right family to make it their own. Work has required the owners to relocate to the mainland, otherwise they would have been here for ever they tell me. And why wouldn't they? With multiple living spaces, a floor plan that offers flexibility and a view that their interstate guests just sit and marvel at, this home just offers exactly what you are looking for, whatever that may be! Positioned perfectly on Reynolds Road, this 3 or 4 bedroom home, built in the early 90's enjoys scenic views and is ready for you to move in and enjoy the good life. The kitchen which has recently been updated benefits from plenty of natural light, boasts ample bench space and an attractive smokey glass splashback. There's ample storage within smart cabinetry and soft-close drawers, induction cooktop and a feature that is close to my heart, double ovens! How else could you slow roast and bake at the same time? The upstairs living area has been reconfigured to make the most of the space ensuring light and view are in abundance. There are three bedrooms up here, the main with ensuite and walk in robe and, the family bathroom has a large walk in shower and attractive feature tile. Downstairs offers a single garage and powered workshop and either a 2nd living room, home office or fourth bedroom and powder room. There is a large closed in entertaining deck which presents as a whole other room and the gardens are established and both pet and family friendly. This home has been thoughtfully presented, with modern touches and consideration given to maximise space, so please call me, Donna Wooley of homelands Property today to arrange your inspection.
