When it comes to modern living in a coastal setting, Sandy Beach is a suburb that fits this brief. Our owners have created an inviting space with lush tropical gardens that complement the large windows and bring the indoors and outdoors together, creating an overall sense of space. This brick home comprises of four bedrooms with the master bedroom set to the rear of the home and offers its own private ensuite and walk in robe. The three guest or kid's bedrooms are all equipped with built in wardrobes and are all serviced by the spacious main bathroom. The open plan kitchen, living and dining room all flow and create a large open plan setting and this area also connects to the undercover alfresco, where you can entertain friends and family. Stepping outside and you will find low maintenance lawns and gardens and this yard offers a lot of privacy. With both Sandy Beach and Woolgoolga only a short drive away and Coffs Harbour being only 15 minutes away, this is an opportunity to buy into a piece of paradise on the Coffs Coast.
