

28 Tasman Street, Dee Why, NSW 2099

Sold House

Tuesday, 2 April 2024

28 Tasman Street, Dee Why, NSW 2099

Bedrooms: 5

Bathrooms: 4

Parkings: 2

Type: House

Matt Brady Brady
0452267906

Emily Read
0425301739

Contact agent

Architecturally evolved for luxury living, this sensational home integrates the finest inclusions to create a sumptuous coastal residence with incredible views. Imagine entertaining with this spectacular panorama as the backdrop, and catering from this state-of-the-art kitchen with butler's scullery that's crafted to the finest standards. The complete renovation of this three-storey home assures deluxe family comfort by offering five bedrooms plus a stylish library, with every space artfully composed with designer details that tantalise the senses. It also prioritises wellness by offering a gym, spa and sauna, as well as a mineral plunge pool soaking up the rays in the northerly garden. This is northern beaches living at its finest, set near the coastal walk and just moments from the sand and surf of Dee Why and North Curl Curl beaches, schools, buses and the buzz of restaurants, bars and cafes.

- Built with polished concrete floors, fortifying brick, stone, timber and off-form concrete construction
- Waterview living & dining with Escea fireplace & enviable balcony
- Stunning kitchen with V-ZUG stovetop, integrated appliances
- Master suite features his/hers walk-ins + a bathtub with water views
- Aged brass fittings, limestone bathrooms with underfloor heating
- Pale timber panel work & terrazzo floors inspire a luxury aesthetic
- Wine gallery, ducted air conditioning, architectural lighting, solar and intercom systems