Expressions of Interest by eXp Offers

Nestled within the heart of the tranquil Palmwoods hinterland, 28 Tytherleigh Road emerges as a renovated brick residence, offering a harmonious blend of comfort and convenience. This delightful property, spanning 728 square metres of lush grounds, beckons first-time buyers, couples, young families, and astute investors to claim a piece of Queensland's serene lifestyle. The house, characterised by its neat presentation and quality build, features three bedrooms, a bright bathroom and a separate toilet. The heart of the home is composed of a cosy lounge, an inviting dining area, and a thoughtfully designed kitchen, fostering memorable family moments. Beyond the interior lies a generous yard, boasting ample space for the addition of a pool. The presence of garden sheds enhances the functionality of the outdoor area, while the covered living space invites alfresco dining and relaxation amidst the gentle Queensland breeze. One of the property's unique charms is its very quiet location with no neighbours to the rear, providing a peaceful outlook onto a council reserve. Families will appreciate the convenience of walking to the nearby school, sports facilities, and town centre, with the Palmwoods train line also within easy reach. Situated within a quaint hinterland town, this home is merely a short drive from the world's finest beaches and all that the Sunshine Coast has to offer. The combination of lovely land size, proximity to amenities, and a serene environment makes 28 Tytherleigh Road a rare opportunity to secure not just a house, but a lifestyle to cherish.
