Featuring three bedrooms, this lowset brick home is situated in one of Carindale's top spots just moments from the action at Westfield. It is also a short walk to the popular Bulimba Creek parklands and bikeway. All three bedrooms are well sized, and include new carpet and paint. This property offers split system air-conditioning to keep you comfortable throughout the home all year round. There are two living areas including a large lounge/dining room, and another large family room tucked away behind the kitchen. Both the bathroom and kitchen are well maintained, the open plan kitchen has plenty of bench space as you enjoy whipping up a meal in its comfortable layout. Top-off this lowset brick home with a large undercover patio area, double lock up garage and you have a family friendly property in the heart of a thriving suburb. Carindale is well serviced by public transport, and enjoys a central location only a short drive from the CBD. Note: New blinds to be installed at a later date
