Hidden Gem

Situated on an expansive 965m² (approx.) is this private and secluded family home, located in one of Rosebuds best cul-de-sacs, and hidden away behind breathtaking and lovingly maintained gardens is this fabulous family-home.

The flexibility of this outstanding home allows for a range of lifestyle choices, each benefitting from the generous dimensions and multiple living zones on offer. Taking advantage, night and day from wide-ranging private garden vistas from all living zones that feature wonderful, vaulted ceilings and brick features.

Three spacious bedrooms are served by a generous main bathroom including bath and separate shower, the fourth room is multi-functional as either a fourth bedroom, study, or parents retreat. The master bedroom suite is opulent courtesy of walk through robe that supplies all the storage you will need and a large boutique ensuite.

The formal lounge boasts a gas wood fire and incorporates a formal dining area as well. The expansive well-equipped kitchen incorporates S/S appliances and stone bench tops and overlooks the second living area that opens out onto a wonderful garden with a timber floored large pergola, ideal for entertaining. With generous storage throughout, ducted heating and a three-car remote garage with internal access, this home is ready and waiting for its new owners.

With parks and reserves, and the golf course nearby and a short drive to the Rosebud shops and foreshore all your wants and needs have been taken care.
