Well known, and ultra desirable Wilpena tce has its final vacant allotment now available. Current owners have held the property for some 40 years and now wish to pass on to someone that has the dream to build something special. Positioned on the fringe of the Stirling and Aldgate boundary, and within walking distance to both popular villages, it provides a golden opportunity for someone to capitalise on the location and use the slope to its full advantage to have an elevated home with the potential for stunning views as well as soaking up a northerly aspect. It is your chance to dream big and be well and truly rewarded with the outcome.
