

281 Torquay Terrace, Torquay, Qld 4655

Sold House

Tuesday, 30 January 2024

281 Torquay Terrace, Torquay, Qld 4655

Bedrooms: 3

Bathrooms: 2

Parkings: 2

Area: 1012 m2

Type: House

Kristy Wright
0499994426

$710,000

Nestled in the heart of a sought-after neighbourhood, this cosy 3-bedroom Queenslander radiates character and warmth, showcasing the timeless charm of its 1930's heritage. Stepping through the front door you are greeted with classic features combined with modern amenities creating a home that is both inviting and functional. What you will love:

1. Three Bedrooms: The home boasts three bedrooms, each exuding its unique character, offering comfortable retreats for both family and guests. The main bedroom offers additional comfort from the summer heat with air conditioning.
2. Galley Style Kitchen: The galley-style kitchen is sure to delight with ample counter space & pantry making this kitchen a hub for culinary creativity.
3. VJ Panels and Polished Floorboards: Throughout the home, original VJ panels on the walls and polished floorboards tell a story of a bygone era. These authentic touches contribute to the overall ambiance of the property.
4. Original Stained Glass: The original stained glass adds a touch of elegance, casting colorful patterns that dance with sunlight throughout the day.
5. Modern Bathroom with Spa Bath: The upgraded bathroom, features a spa bath that provides a perfect retreat for relaxation and rejuvenation.
6. French Doors Leading to Timber Deck: Step outside through the charming French doors onto the spacious timber deck. Perfect for entertaining or enjoying a quiet morning coffee, the deck overlooks a private backyard.
7. Potential & Possibilities: Underneath your home offers a wealth of possibilities. Convenience meets practicality with the second bathroom cleverly combined with the laundry, providing functionality and efficiency.
8. Short Distance to Beach and Cafes: Enjoy the coastal lifestyle with a short distance to the beach. Local cafes offer a diverse culinary experience just around the corner.

This property is a rare gem that seamlessly combines the best of both worlds – a glimpse into the past with all the comforts of modern living. Don't miss the opportunity to own a piece of history that you can call home. Contact us today to arrange a private viewing and immerse yourself in the charm and allure of this unique Queenslander home. *This home is currently tenanted until January 2024 and requires a minimum of 24 hours notice.