Situated in a sought-after suburb, a contemporary design and premier access to lifestyle precincts, multiple schools both private and public, the motorway and public transport ensure that superior liveability is at your fingertips! Designed with modern living at the forefront, every desire is fulfilled within this expansive double storey residence; five bedrooms ensuring room for families to grow or for the avid investor to benefit from a good rental. Stylishly designed for both carefree ease and timeless appeal, the home welcomes you with a large void entering the front door embracing nice breezes. Multiple living zones are incorporated for perfect family flexibility with an open-plan living and dining set on tiled floors and a plush lounge room positioned at the rear of the house. Occupying a flowing galley layout, the modern kitchen boasts superior functionality with a surplus of storage, stainless appliances and gas stove. There is a great sized pantry as well as extensive stone-topped benches with the centre island including breakfast bar seating. Glass sliders frame the rear of the home to allow glorious natural light along with seamless transition to your deluxe alfresco zone. There is both covered and open-air space to enjoy, boasting a fire pit zone and dining area. Five built-in bedrooms are spaced throughout the home, with a separate study downstairs. Enjoying an abundant of natural light and cooling breezes, the master also includes a large walk-in robe and private ensuite with two additional bathrooms servicing the remainder of the house; each boasting a contemporary fit-out. Additional features include good storage, separate laundry, ceiling fans throughout, and remote double garage. It's little wonder this location is so desirable, with all the conveniences in such close proximity!
