Live in serenity on this expansive property, where you can embrace country living or even build your dream farm house. The current owners, currently residing in the shed, are excited about the prospect of securing their new dream home in town and are open to offers. Encompassing 16.7 hectares or over 41 acres, this Takura property boasts a sizable dam with a jetty, a shed, and additional structures. It serves as an ideal location for both storage and comfortable living while you work on building your permanent residence. Takura is just a brief drive from Torbanlea, renowned for its country pub, and a quick trip to Howard, which offers a delightful bakery, grocery stores, and a variety of services. Enjoy the convenience of easy access to the Bruce Highway, Maryborough, and Hervey Bay, providing not only a peaceful retreat but also options for schooling. With an abundance of space, you can relish the freedom to partake in diverse activities, whether it's caring for animals, exploring on dirt bikes, or cruising on quads. The property includes a 12 kW solar system, numerous additional carports adjacent to the shed, and a standalone bathroom. Immerse yourself in the tranquility of rural living, all while having the flexibility to build your farm dream house and create a lifestyle surrounded by nature's beauty.
