Presented by Jayde Webb and Corey Hamilton of One Agency Elite Property Group. This exceptional 3-bedroom, two-bathroom mud brick home is truly unlike anything you've ever seen. From the moment you step inside, you'll be greeted by an abundance of natural light that fills every corner of the house. The main living area is a sight to behold, with floor-to-ceiling windows that stretch across the entire lounge space, offering breathtaking views of the surrounding landscape and allowing the outdoors to seamlessly blend with the indoors. Adding to the allure of this property is a unique feature—a mud brick shed that has been thoughtfully converted into an additional living space. This space is a standout, with one large living area and two additional rooms, creating a world of possibilities. Whether you envision introducing dual occupancy for extended family or guests or require a dedicated office space, this versatile area can accommodate your needs with ease. Situated on a sprawling 5-acre parcel of land, this property is a haven for horse enthusiasts. Equipped with a dam and two meticulously crafted horse sheds, it provides the perfect environment for your equine companions. Your horses will find shelter, shade, and a dry place to rest, ensuring their well-being in all weather conditions. For those with various storage needs, the property boasts a generously sized shed that can accommodate farming machinery, boats, caravans, and vehicles, making it an ideal solution for collectors and hobbyists alike. Opportunities like this don't come around often. This property is a rare find, and it's not expected to last long on the market. Don't miss your chance to own this one-of-a-kind mud brick home on a picturesque 5-acre setting.
