Possibilities galore surround this endearing art deco circa 1955 home, which comfortable as is, will be appealing to those who would love the opportunity to improve or personalise through refurbishment, or perhaps just add a coat of paint, polish floorboards and upgrade facilities to make it their own. Spacious accommodation contained within this solid double brick home, includes a large sun filled living room, lounge room, 5 double bedrooms, 3 bathrooms and kitchen. Under the ground floor level is the laundry, workshop and oodles of storage space. The large rear garden is a great space for children and pets to run around or for the green thumb to create something special. This sun filled home is rich in original character and enjoys a very convenient and popular location close to the beautiful parklands of Fitzroy Gardens. It is near playing fields, the 'big slide' and is an easy walk to the local Sandy Bay shops, schools, UTAS - a fantastic opportunity for near-city living. The possibilities are endless with the space this property affords. If you are up for a challenge this is the perfect opportunity to value add. Inspections of this property are strictly by appointment only.
