Offering the perfect balance of period qualities, a prized location and a generous 535sqm approx allotment with two street frontages backing onto Emma Street. Set in one of Seddon's highly sought after streets in the Seddon village making this rare full block original double front Victorian something not to be missed. The home exudes character and charm, with its timeless design, featuring a wide central hallway with original archway, cornices, skirting board and high ceilings, three bedrooms, formal living and separate kitchen meals and double garage. The potential to renovate, develop or start again in this amazing location will ensure a sound investment and happy family living. Walk to Middle Footscray train station, Bristow Reserve, zoned for Footscray Primary School and Footscray High School and all the delights Seddon, Yarraville and Footscray have to offer. We donate a portion of our fee from every property transaction to the Woodards Foundation to support people experiencing homelessness, family violence and social isolation.
