Unlike any other property on the market today, 29 Ballantyne Court, Glenview offers over 1 acre of pristine land, set in the heart of the Sunshine Coast's premier growth corridor. Located in a private setting, all within minutes to major Sunshine Coast infrastructure and facilities, this rare opportunity exists to secure your own unique property in a phenomenal location. Complete with dual living capabilities, this property offers so much for the extended family or investor, including separated living spaces and recent renovations ensures the astute buyer can move in or lease with maximum benefit. Downstairs offers two generous bedrooms, living and dining zones, remodelled bathroom, and kitchenette facilities. Whilst upstairs offers a beautifully appointed kitchen with a chef inspired double oven, dishwasher, and copious amounts of storage, two oversized bedrooms and a remodelled bathroom ensures all the family are catered for. The showstopper is the extended entertaining deck which captures the afternoon and evening breezes whilst overlooking the picturesque rural setting below.
