In a family-friendly neighbourhood moments from Burwood One Shopping Centre, this heartwarming home promises endless options for market-savvy buyers. Featuring a relaxed ambience throughout, the comfortable sunroom overlooks a central living room with polished timber floors, linking seamlessly with a practical kitchen/meals zone featuring electric cooking appliances and ample storage space. Three generous size bedrooms are nestled together for ease, alongside a family bathroom with a separate toilet and laundry. Resting on approx. 585sqm of near-level land, the home also presents an irresistible opportunity to design and build your family their dream home and live the good life (STCA). Features include split system air conditioning, outdoor shutters, a large veggie garden and a double garage. Ideally positioned close to bus and tram services, Burwood Heights Primary School and Forest Hill College (both zoned), PLC, Emmaus College and Deakin University, Forest Hill Chase, local parks and sporting facilities, Blackburn Station Village and Burwood Brickworks.
