In an elevated position in a lovely street - Flood Free - and within walking distance of central Coraki, this delightful family home offers a fantastic lifestyle with multiple living areas, a charming, updated kitchen, and a spacious fully fenced backyard. One thing you find in these older style homes is the actual huge amount of living space that you find in every room throughout the whole house. With timber floor coverings & 9 foot ceilings throughout, this property has loads of character that many people will love - Reverse cycle Air Conditioning, Ceiling Fans, Fire place etc. The spacious living areas consists of a formal entry, spacious lounge area, separate dining room off kitchen and a massive dining area located directly off the Kitchen. A utility room and huge sunroom at the rear of the home lends great opportunity. The rear yard is fully fenced with a huge shed with two separate roller doors - perfect for the tradie, home handy man, collector etc.. Highly motivated Owner has priced to sell - Put this on the top of your list!
