Auction Location: On Site Celebrated for both its land size and interior design, this spectacular trophy home located on prestigious Blaxland Road, commands attention with its flawless internal renovation, sublime salt water pool and alfresco options, and the sheer amount of outdoor space it holds, offering hard-to-find privacy. Grounded by rich timber flooring, raked ceilings with exposed timber beams, and crisp white walls, French doors and windows allow the beauty of the view, greenery and architecture to shine. Cohesive in its selection of finishes, the kitchen island is encased in striking marble with dual ovens and an integrated dishwasher enhancing the seamless finish. Aspiring chefs will love working within this space. Accommodation comprises four upper level bedrooms, and both are showroom-worthy – including the full main with freestanding bath upstairs and another with twin vanity downstairs. A versatile study, powder room, internal laundry room and basement space begging to become a wine cellar complete the home's internal footprint. Softened by texture and greenery, the poolside landscaping provides both privacy and atmosphere, and this theme continues across the hedge-lined and tree-studded grounds. A lifestyle purchase like no other, capitalise on the tranquility of this address while remaining close to a choice of several local shopping hubs, the glory of Lake Macquarie, and a selection of excellent schools. -?
