Infusing Art Deco traditions with streamline and mid-century architecture, this stunning 3 bedroom + study 2 bathroom Art Deco beauty sets the scene for spectacular family entertaining. Covered in Boston Ivy, this picture perfect home enjoys a fluted glass entrance door, 2 classic bedrooms (one with wall of robes, one with fireplace), a hallway of storage then a wall of robes to the sun filled main bedroom (private deck and chic ensuite), a designer Deco study, charming bathroom and a fitted laundry. An amazing north facing open plan living area with mid-century inspired shelving and commercial grade windows brings the outdoors in, while featuring a stone gas fireplace and impressive Corian kitchen (quality stainless steel appliances including Asko dishwasher). The expansive deck wraps around the home and there's plenty of room to play sport in the garden or celebrate family occasions with ornamental pear trees creating garden privacy. The bonus is a home office pod with its own private entrance – perfect for those who need to work remotely or want a private space for a yoga studio. Loving that it's a family home on a single level, this magical home is complete with security door, video intercom, ducted heating, split system air conditioning, surround sound, instant hot water, an abundance of storage, external café awnings, sprinkler system, water tanks under the deck and paved parking for 2. Opposite the spectacular architecture of Caulfield South Primary School, metres to Princes Park, Marara Road Reserve and the Chadstone bus, walk to Mr Brightside café and Glen Huntly Road tram.
