

29 Castle Street, Randwick, NSW 2031

MGM MARTIN

Sold House

Friday, 1 September 2023

29 Castle Street, Randwick, NSW 2031

Bedrooms: 1

Bathrooms: 1

Parkings: 1

Area: 191 m2

Type: House

Harry Kinezos
0452654348

Contact agent

Nestled on a standalone lot, this residence graces a prestigious street in Randwick North. Unaltered for 35 years, this Federation style property, maintains its original charm. A haven of untapped potential, it offers a canvas for creative transformation. The Neighbourhood's elite status and prime location enhances its blend of history and opportunity. With a wealth of possibilities, this home presents a rare chance to fashion a personalized haven (STCA). With Parklands and Cafes at your doorstep, it's the little wonder that brings a sense of home to this leafy pocket of Randwick North. What's important to you?

- Untouched Sturdy Brick dwelling, awaiting imaginative touches for its revival
- Spacious bedroom seamlessly connects to living and dining areas
- Neat dine-in kitchen, fully equipped with gas cooking facilities
- Timeless bathroom, featuring convenient shower amenities
- Elegant era touch: ornate ceilings, hardwood floors, infusing vintage allure
- Easily kept yard with rear lane access into the lockup garage space.

- A rare opportunity to own a piece of land located in a treelined street

The local's point of view – Randwick's loved for its dining, shops and access to the Eastern beaches – It's central setting is surrounded by famous Sydney parks & gardens – It's mere footsteps to the 356 bus to Bondi Junction – Easy stroll to Centennial Park, Queens Park & Royal Randwick shopping – Enjoy a day at the Iconic Royal Randwick Race Course within Walking – The kids can walk to nearby Randwick Public, Emanuel School, St Margaret Mary's Primary School – It's within strolling distance of the light rail & a quick drive to the iconic Coogee, Bondi & Clovelly beaches