Nestled in the foothills of Tamborine Mountain, this stunning property provides a private and tranquil escape from the busy demands of everyday. As you enter this beautiful home through the formal entry you step into the lounge area that looks out to a lush garden and water feature. The warmth from the fireplace makes this room the perfect place on a cold winter's night. The recently renovated kitchen along with the dining and informal living area all have amazing views of the landscaped gardens surrounding the home. Walking out through the sliding doors to a delightful entertaining area that overlooks the swimming pool and lawn. The elevated deck has a lovely view of the surrounding bushland and wildlife. Just under an hour from Brisbane and the Gold Coast and under five minutes to the nearest chemist, doctor's surgery, produce and hardware. You can have your own slice of private paradise without sacrificing convenience. This 5 acre property has been built and meticulously maintained by the owners for the last 25 years and it is now ready to be enjoyed by the next lucky owners.
