Auction Location: In rooms | LJ Hooker Canberra City | 182 City Walk, Canberra City Perfectly positioned within the new parkland enclave within the established, blue-chip suburb of Red Hill this stunning, 2023 build executive home represents a fantastic property opportunity for those who have an appreciation for clean, modern, functional, and most importantly exceptional value for money property. When first designing the home, the brief was to create a tasteful, modern property that captures the vibe that planned development would bring to the area. This has been achieved with remarkable precision and is in complete harmony with the surrounding area. Thoughtfully designed to take full advantage of the park setting vistas on offer, the flowing design of this open plan living residence provides for an easy lifestyle home that blends in harmoniously with its surrounds. An entertainer's delight, the spacious and flowing plan encapsulates everything that a modern home buyer could ever ask for. Large, light filled north facing living. 12 ft height ceilings. Open plan Galley kitchen. Segregated bedrooms. European style alfresco dining. Landscaping options to make it your own. Step up your property level, secure this home to fully enjoy everything the inner south Canberra suburbs have to offer. Lifestyle, dining, entertainment and community.
