This recently refurbished classic style residence, is favourably positioned in a quiet cul-de-sac, in cosmopolitan Richmond. With no heritage overlay, the free standing home is beautifully presented, offering scope to renovate, extend, build or develop (STCA). Boasting a generous allotment of approximately 243sqm, the romantic abode features 2 bedrooms plus study/zoom room, light filled living with adjoining dining area, kitchen with meals, central bathroom, sunroom/laundry and handy off street parking. Combining a tranquil courtyard/garden setting just perfect for relaxing and entertaining. The location is first class, surrounded by parkland, Barkly Gardens and McConchie Park, Yarra River bike trails, popular boutique clothing retailers, restaurants, cafes, bars and galleries on Chapel Street and Bridge Road.
