A surprise of spacious and light filled modern design is revealed behind the classic facade of this renovated Victorian-era terrace. Its fresh interior is highlighted by a generous open plan layout that includes quality finishes and a great flow to the outdoors for easy entertaining. This superb lifestyle property sits in a leafy Leichhardt location that's within strolling distance to Norton Street's café and dining precinct, Marketplace shopping, as well as express CBD transport along Parramatta Road. Light and airy interiors feature a good separation of living spaces. Generous lounge, sitting area and a casual dining space at the rear. Foldout doors open up seamlessly onto the outdoor area. Covered entertainment patio and easy maintenance rear garden. Three upstairs bedrooms, the main has a traditional lacework balcony. The balcony captures elevated leafy views over the district. A modern stone kitchen with breakfast bar and gas cooktop. Lovely high ceilings, timber floors and many character details. A wide and leafy street with good parking available for residents.
