Family Northern Beaches Home

Number 29 Garnet Street is a perfect family home, in a sought after Northern Beaches location. This three bedroom, two bathroom property is in the heart of Kewarra Beach, a leafy beachside central suburb with community amenities close by including local shops and schools.

The residence offers space for the entire family both indoors and out. A large open plan living room is connected with a renovated kitchen as the heart of the home with a island bench for morning breakfasts on the go or evening entertaining with family and friends. There are 3 well proportioned bedrooms and 2 bathrooms. The master bedroom features a walk in wardrobe.

Outside you will find a fully fenced in backyard with lush lawns and extra storage in the large shed. A tropical pool is perfect for the entire family to cool off in a private rear yard. The grounds offers low maintenance care whilst still having some established garden.

Here is a great opportunity to secure the perfect family home in a suburb where properties are being snatched up. Request your inspection now, and make this your new home.
