

29 Garoona Grove, Slacks Creek, Qld 4127

Elders

Sold House

Friday, 31 May 2024

29 Garoona Grove, Slacks Creek, Qld 4127

Bedrooms: 3

Bathrooms: 1

Parkings: 2

Area: 859 m2

Type: House

Joel Ruge
0734408500

$710,000

This cottage style home offers even more than a welcome, homely feel! There is plenty of space to relax in, to build a granny flat, or you may even want to subdivide (STCA) to capitalise on the two street frontages. As you step inside the home, you can appreciate the open plan design of the lounge, kitchen and the dining and family spaces that open out onto the rear verandah. The modern kitchen has been well designed with fantastic storage and oodles of bench space. Just some of the features of this home include: Three bedrooms Main bedroom with huge walk-in robe Renovated bathroom Air conditioning and ceiling fans throughout Laundry with storage Two street frontage Fully fenced Garage, carport and garden shed Outside the home there is a carport and a garage with double-gated access from Jindabyne Court at the rear and also a garden shed. There is even a water tank and solar electricity system to save you money! Mable Park Primary and High Schools, well known for their music, aviation and soccer programs are just a short walk. Ikea, city buses and Chatswood Hills Shopping Centre are only a short drive way too. You can explore the new creek-side walks, outdoor exercise equipment and relaxing surrounds of multiple local parks and reserves. Slacks Creek has been well known for its exceptional value for money and convenience - here in this home you can take advantage of great living space and all the gains to be made from development options.