Auction

Hidden amid lush greenery at the whisper-quiet cul-de-sac end of Glendon Road, lies a remarkable family retreat blessed with a superb sense of seclusion and contemporary sophistication. Creating an immediate impression, striking design elements are complemented by exquisite craftsmanship, defining every corner of this expansive two-story layout. A fluid open plan living and kitchen zone forms the core of the home, edged by a sunlit glass-framed dining setting and glorious outdoor space. Floor-to-ceiling glass panels seamlessly connect the interior to a secluded, all-weather terrace featuring a sunken gas fire-pit, perfect for hosting gatherings in complete seclusion, with beautifully curated gardens filtering views to the Travertine-paved swimming pool. Positioned in a coveted locale, just a leisurely 500-meter stroll from Double Bay Village and within walking distance to sandy beaches, Steyne Park, and the ferry terminal, this property epitomises luxurious coastal living at its finest.
