With its meticulously crafted architectural features and superior craftsmanship, this covered beachside address exudes undeniable luxury from every angle. Offering discerning families an unmatched living experience only steps from the shallows of Frankston Beach, the FHSZ home welcomes with a total renovation and contemporary setting. Catering to the diverse needs of families with two distinct living zones and a completely secured 701sqm (approx.) allotment, the home dresses its thoughtfully curated floorplan with premium finishes, including engineered timber floors and Abey hardware throughout. A tastefully designed stone-finished kitchen brings people together across a front family domain, where a freestanding Smeg cooker and island bench will impress those with a passion for entertaining. An artful play with ceiling heights adds visual interest above the dining space, while a natural stone hearth serves as a focal point within the front living space. Ensuring both functionality and comfort are effortlessly intertwined, the three-bedroom 2-bathroom accommodation gracefully occupies the remainder of the home, anchored by an open study with built-in cabinetry and desk, and light-filled lounge with direct deck access. Amongst these serene spaces, the master bedroom stands out with its generous walk-in robe and ensuite, providing parents with a private sanctuary for relaxation.
