

29 Hyacinth Street, Asquith, NSW 2077

Raine&Horne.

Sold House

Tuesday, 19 December 2023

29 Hyacinth Street, Asquith, NSW 2077

Bedrooms: 3

Bathrooms: 1

Parkings: 2

Area: 697 m2

Type: House

Chris Hopkins

Contact agent

Positioned in one of Asquith's most desirable streets, this charming 3-bedroom house is brimming with potential. The perfect place to call home now, and offers outstanding scope in the future to further enhance and or rebuild your own contemporary home (STCA). Situated over a sunny 697m² of near level land, this well-maintained home sits within a peaceful and leafy neighbourhood conveniently within walking distance to all local amenities, schools and transport and just a short drive to Hornsby CBD. • Three bedrooms, all enjoying built in robes • Large eat in kitchen with ample cupboards • Separate lounge room • Covered outdoor entertaining area • Polished timber floorboards, reverse cycle air conditioning, single lock up garage and carport • Well maintained lawns and gardens in a fully fenced yard • 3km to Hornsby CBD and Westfield • 700m to Asquith station • 700m to Asquith shops including Coles • 1.3km to Asquith Public School Don't miss out on this fantastic opportunity to own a beautiful house in a sought-after location. Contact the agent today for more information and to arrange a viewing. The price guide for this property is "Contact agent."