Situated in an elevated, sun-drenched position, within walking distance to shops, eateries, beaches and with parks and schools close-by, this stylishly modernised beachside home would make the perfect choice for those in search of a great location and a coastal lifestyle. Step inside and you'll discover a spacious interior, flooded in natural light and offering a contemporary style that has been effortlessly incorporated with the original features including stunning timber floors and ornate cornices that you will fall in love with. The open plan, air-conditioned living area features huge picture windows to the East, North and West, with ocean views to Point Plomer. There's a sleek modern kitchen, with stone benchtops, a large dining zone that flows out to a covered deck overlooking the yard & picturesque mountain view to host your family & friends. The sunsets from the deck are just incredible! The large yard is full fenced and lush tropical gardens create privacy. Back inside, there are three good-sized bedrooms, all with fans and built-in wardrobes. The main bathroom, with separate WC, has been recently updated, however, you may decide to renovate to add your personal touch to this space. A handy study nook off the kitchen is the ideal spot for working from home or for the kids to study. On the lower level, there is under-house storage adjacent to the double garage and laundry, whilst a bonus room/workshop that provides a multitude of opportunities & could be set-up / modified as a great space for the teenage kids to escape to or even to create the ultimate man cave. In this exceptionally popular coastal suburb and offering such a great coastal vibe, we expect a lot of interest. So, make sure you don't delay organising your inspection, as this loved family home will sell!
