Introducing 29 Lawson Street in Oxley! A well-presented north facing three bedroom home - perfect for a first home buyer or a smart investor looking to gain a holding in one of South East Queensland's most popular spots. Upon arriving at the property, you notice the large 607sqm of land with the home perfectly positioned towards the elevated back of the block. Important to note that the house itself here has not been affected by flooding. As you step inside the home, you see the spacious floor plan and welcoming atmosphere for you and your guests. The kitchen is fitted with great appliances, ample counter space and cabinetry - making cooking a breeze. With three good sized bedrooms, everyone can enjoy their private space for a peaceful rest. Outside, you have a private backyard, perfect for relaxing, hosting gatherings or indulging in gardening projects. The location is unbeatable with Oxley train station, Oxley shops (which include Woolworths, Officeworks, JB HiFi etc) and the essentials just minutes away. As well as this, it is also a close drive to the Oxley Golf Course and Oxley golf driving range. Families will love the proximity to Oxley State School and Corinda State High School - ensuring quality education for your children. Positioned on an easy 607m2 block, this residence represents a great opportunity to get into the ever-popular Oxley market. Don't miss this chance to make this home, your home.
