Perfectly presented, this roomy light-filled home is a gem. Set conveniently within Rutherglen Residential Club there is ample garden space, and the unit enjoys its own carport with driveway access. Comprising two bedrooms with built-ins, a tidy bathroom with separate WC, an attractive timber kitchen that leads to a laundry and back door entry from carport and small storage shed, and the most lovely, spacious glass-fronted living area, the unit provides everything required for a quiet, secure lifestyle. A mere 20 minutes from Launceston and the airport, its location on the banks of the beautiful South Esk River enhances the many attributes this special unit enjoys, and includes further amenities such as Pool, Community Room, Library and a nearby Bus Stop.
