The allure of a classic weatherboard cottage never fades, and the sentiment certainly rings true for this c1920's beauty with its classic façade delivering a hint of what lies behind the front door. Brimming with traditional features, you'll adore the soaring 11-foot ceilings, elegant wainscoting on the walls, decorative cornices, original timber floors and gorgeous leadlight door detailing – in fact the authenticity radiated throughout will almost certainly win your heart. Set amid beautiful gardens and boasting breathtaking mountain views at the front, you'll also be just a short walk into the heart of town, making this a home and lifestyle offering not to be missed.

- Gloriously sun-drenched 691sqm block graced an elevated north-easterly aspect
- Elegant wainscoting, heritage doors, sash windows, leadlight details, 11ft ceilings
- Gorgeous living area with a decorative fireplace wraps around to an office nook
- Well-appointed and supremely functional kitchen retains some original detailing
- Four bedrooms, two with built-in robes, the master accessing the front veranda
- Large mudroom area at the rear incorporates the bathroom, a toilet and laundry
- Expansive yard is a gorgeous garden wonderland, perfect for weekend entertaining
- Single carport adjoins the home, with a garden shed at the rear an added bonus
- Character rich polished hardwood floors and ducted heating/cooling throughout
- Centrally located, just moments to an array of local cafes, shops, parks and schools
- Rates: $3,372.19 per annum
