"Tell me where else you could find a decent home on a good land allotment under $600,000... there aren't many left which makes this property such an intriguing prospect."The block is well over 500sqm, which is hard to come by these days. Throw in a traditional double car garage and an inviting three bedroom home and you've got yourself your perfect first home. And if you are an investor, you know what makes this property even more tantalising? It's the location. In a leafy part of Pakenham, the property is walking distance to St Patricks Primary School, Consolidated Primary School, Lakeside Secondary and Beaconhills. You're also only a few hundred metres from sprawling parkland, walking trails, Toomuc creek, footy grounds, shops and public transport. It's a wonderful area of Pakenham and you'll love owning this property.The house itself is compact and neat, featuring:- Three bedrooms, master with en-suite and walk-in robe;- Updated kitchen;- Bright living room adjacent to dining area;- Separate bathroom and laundry;- Heating and cooling;- Genuine side access; - Easy-to-maintain yard. Inspections will be limited so please enquire if the advertised time doesn't suit you.
