This beautiful single level bungalow has recently been thoughtfully renovated to modernise and freshen the space, whilst still retaining all the charm that comes with homes of this era - the best of both worlds! The beautiful polished timber floors run throughout the entire sun-filled home, including the 3 spacious bedrooms, large living area, dining room, and modern kitchen. All bedrooms and living areas are serviced by ducted air-conditioning, with an additional split system unit in the master bedroom, which also boasts a walk in wardrobe and ensuite. Both bathrooms have been fully renovated along with the kitchen, offering an abundance of smart storage options. Some of the home's original charming features that are still proudly displayed include the columns around the front veranda, the dining room bay window, and the soaring traditional ceiling with timber breezeways throughout.
