Positioned across the road from bush reserve, this delightful three bedroom cottage will appeal to renovators, first home buyers and downsizers alike. From high ceilings to polished floor boards and leadlight windows, this charming property makes a warm and inviting place to call home after a long day. Generously proportioned, all three of the homes classic bedrooms feature built-in robes for your convenience (rare for this era of home!) and are serviced by an antique style main bathroom complete with an iconic clawfoot bathtub! The home's classic kitchen features modern appliances, including a handy dishwasher, plus ample cupboard space for storing all your cooking essentials. Outdoors a wonderful big covered entertaining area will be a favourite spot to host visiting family and friends. A separate covered BBQ area also here to enjoy with lovely mature trees providing plenty of shade and privacy. The large side yard presents ample space for kids and pets and features double gate access to the street for easy parking. You could even add a potential pool or shed (STCA) to really finish this home off! Conveniently located just minutes from Kurri's town centre and the Hunter Expressway, there's so much potential here for renovators or first home buyers to add their stamp to the home's charming interiors and create a top little home.
