

29 Rushcutters Way, Port Macquarie, NSW 2444

Sold House

Monday, 23 October 2023

29 Rushcutters Way, Port Macquarie, NSW 2444

Bedrooms: 3

Bathrooms: 2

Parkings: 2

Area: 615 m2

Type: House

Lance Dekker
0488468737

$775,000

Don't miss out on this exciting opportunity to own a spacious 3 bedroom home positioned on a level 614m² block in the sought-after Lighthouse Beach area. With peaceful tree-lined reserve at the rear, this property provides the ideal setting to have some fun and create your own tranquil oasis. The potential is huge. At the front of the home sits a light and bright lounge room and dining space, and on the other side, away from the guest bedrooms, discover a spacious master bedroom including built in robes and an ensuite. The heart of the home, a well-appointed kitchen, overlooks a second living space that opens up to a large covered timber deck entertaining area. It's the perfect spot to relax, enjoy nature, and entertain guests while the kids play in the sunny backyard. The rear of the home uncovers two more bedrooms with built-in robes and a neat and tidy bathroom. Storage is ample with a double garage, laundry including a built-in cupboard, and under-house area for the odds and ends. Exceptionally private, almost every room captures an outlook across the surrounding greenery. Located just a short drive from Lighthouse Beach, 1.5kms from the local shops and cafes, and only 1.2kms from Tacking Point Primary School, it's little wonder this location is so popular. Plus, there's a convenient shortcut leading to the Tacking Point Tavern, just 10-minutes stroll from the doorstep. Winning! Invest in your future today or swoop on the chance to secure a great value home in a fabulous location that caters for lifestyle and convenience. - Spacious home on large block backing reserve - Well-appointed kitchen, ensuite master, two living areas - Connect with nature from the outdoor entertaining patio - Private setting capturing outlook across lush greenery - Ample storage with double garage and under-house area - Conveniently located near beach, shops, cafes, and school - Potential to modernise or add your own personal touch - Great area to invest or enjoy a relaxed coastal lifestyle