This excellent two-storey brick family home has served its long-term owners well, and is prepared to do it all again! Situated in a serene cul-de-sac, it's well-presented, with an abundance of amenities and hosting possibilities. The generous property is an attractively established 577.5m² block of land which is only moments from local shops and public transport, in a rapidly growing area that includes Sydney Zoo and offers easy access to the best amenities around. The home's interiors are welcoming, accommodating and full of character, easily able to cater to the hectic weekdays and weekend socialising with friends and family. Whether you leave it as is, or update at your leisure, this is a practical, friendly home with plenty to offer and possibilities galore! Features:-
- Six bedrooms with built-in wardrobes, ensuite and walk-in wardrobe to master bedroom
- Study/office for the student, business owner or home-based worker
- Roomy galley-style kitchen with stainless-steel appliances, pantry, breakfast bar, plentiful cabinetry and extensive preparation space
- Open meals area off kitchen
- Spacious, open living and dining area
- Upstairs rumpus area
- Family bathroom with separate bath and shower
- Laundry/toilet with ample storage and room for linen work
- Extensive covered entertaining area
- In-ground swimming pool looking more inviting by the day!
- Pull down coloured sun blinds - Solar panels and backup battery to store power
- Double carport
Additional features: three garden sheds in total, split-system air-conditioning throughout, bedroom and living area ceiling fans.
With its extra-convenient location within walking distance to schools, shops, hospital and train station, a short drive to the town centre, this superb property will attract serious attention. Auction is to be held on Saturday 25th November 2023 at 12:30pm
