This beautifully presented home, built in 2010 features a surprisingly spacious design & is peacefully positioned in one of the sought after estates most popular pockets. With more space than you'll expect this home is ideal for those wanting a generous yet low maintenance lifestyle without skimping on space & entertaining. Once you enter the home you'll be greeted by a king sized master suite with lofty high ceilings, walk-thru his & her robes & generous sized, ensuite bathroom. Located separately, bedrooms two & three both feature built-in robes whilst situated either side of the three-way main bathroom & separate laundry. Year-round comfort is only the flick of a switch away with zoned, ducted heating & cooling throughout. This unique design sees the 2.7m ceilings continue throughout & as you approach the rear the home opens up to a large open plan area allowing for two separate sitting spaces, central dining & fully equipped kitchen. With a huge central island, loads of bench space & plenty of storage this ideally positioned kitchen will please the fussiest of chefs. For the lovers of entertaining the family living area spills outdoors to a private alfresco area that can be fully enclosed with blinds for year-round use. Nestled on a beautifully landscaped & extremely low maintenance allotment you'll enjoy a stunning rear view over the estate along with a fruit producing garden. Additional features include double automatic garaging with secure internal access, a whopping 606kw solar system to reduce your running costs & much more. If you're looking for a home that compliments your lifestyle, then this will be top of your list!
