Welcome to 29 Westfield Boulevard, where the essence of home transcends the ordinary. This residence stands as a testament to a quality of build that is unparalleled in today's market. In an era where craftsmanship is often sacrificed for mass production, this home is a rare gem, showcasing the kind of attention to detail and durability. Nestled against a picturesque backdrop with views of the Moonee Ponds Creek trail, this property is not just a home; it's a sanctuary. Beyond the charming facade lies a retreat of comfort, style, and functionality. Step inside to discover a world of refined living, where multiple living areas seamlessly merge to create an atmosphere of warmth and sophistication. The high ceilings elevate the sense of space, offering an airy and open ambiance that is both inviting and luxurious. Each bedroom is thoughtfully designed, boasting ample space and convenient built-in robes. The master suite is a retreat within itself, complete with a full ensuite and walk-in robe, ensuring a private haven for relaxation. The heart of this home is undoubtedly the large, recently renovated kitchen. Adorned with stone top benches, stainless steel appliances, and a separate island bench top, it's a culinary masterpiece where every meal becomes a delightful experience. One exceptional feature sets this property apart - a full self-contained unit. Complete with a living room, kitchen, bedroom with ensuite, and built-in robes, this unit offers a myriad of possibilities. It's an ideal space for an older teenager seeking independence or a potential income-generating opportunity by renting it out. For those who appreciate convenience, the property features a large carport area, effortlessly accommodating four car spaces and more. Practicality meets luxury in this home, ensuring your vehicles are sheltered in style. From the rare quality of its build to the expansive open spaces complemented by breathtaking views, this property is a rare find. Don't miss the chance to make this extraordinary residence your own.
