Expressions of Interest/Offers By 31st October at 2pm Discover the perfect blend of charm, character, and modern convenience in this three bedroom family home, set on a generous 683m² block. Conveniently located opposite Collings Park in highly sought-after Old East Albury, you'll relish the peaceful atmosphere and sense of community this prime position offers. Nestled behind a picturesque white picket fence, the home features a formal living room with wood fire and raked ceilings, creating a cosy and inviting space for family and friends. The dark polished timber floors flow through the renovated kitchen, complete with quality stainless steel appliances and breakfast bar, to the dining area, providing an immediate sense of style and relaxed family living. All three bedrooms offer built-in robes, while the updated family bathroom and 2nd toilet provide added convenience. The spacious outdoor undercover entertaining area overlooks a low maintenance, secure garden and yard. Additional features include a double lock-up garage, evaporative cooling, gas heating and split system air conditioning.
